

Getting Services for Children, Families, and Seniors

The Human Services Department oversees City programs for families and seniors, including counseling, parent education, personal financial assistance, and access to many social services through the Family Resource Center. Multiple languages are spoken.

The Parks and Recreation Department has several facilities and many beautiful parks throughout the city for families to enjoy. The Department offers a wide variety of leisure and educational classes and camps, and special events for children, teens, and adults.